

Santa Fe Independent School District Proclamation Administrative Professionals' Day

WHEREAS, Administrative Professionals' Day — also known as Secretaries' Day — was created in 1952 to recognize the significance of the profession and acknowledge the importance and value of the position to America's companies, businesses and institutions both large and small, including public schools; and

WHEREAS, School secretaries in Santa Fe Independent School District play key roles, bear many responsibilities and are crucial to the efficient functioning and smooth running of day-to-day operations as they assist educators, principals, students and parents of the district; and

WHEREAS, Secretaries' Day is being observed nationwide this year on April 27, 2022.

THEREFORE, the Santa Fe ISD Board of Trustees encourage the district to thank their secretaries and celebrate the exemplary work of school secretaries on that day.

Passed and Approved this 28th day of March, 2022.

J.R. "Rusty" Norman, President

Eric E. Davenport, Vice President
James Grassmuck, Secretary
Matt Crable

Patrick Kelly
Clay Hertenberger
Angie Lambert

Dr. Kevin Bott, Superintendent