

Santa Fe Independent School District Proclamation

Public School Volunteer Week

Whereas, Parent and community involvement is a significant factor in the success of schools;

Whereas, During the past decade, school systems throughout the country have accepted the services of dedicated volunteers to assist professional educators, and these volunteers have offered their time, encouragement, and meaningful contact with students; and

Whereas, Becoming a volunteer, parents and community members are providing an invaluable contribution to the education of our students; and

Whereas, Volunteers are called upon to assist teachers and staff with the day-to-day activities involved in providing a balanced education for our students and are an important part of a team that strives to ensure that each and every one of our students succeed; and

Whereas, During the school year, countless volunteers are spending innumerable hours serving schools throughout Texas as chaperones, mentors, after-school tutors, club leaders, booster club members, PTA and PTO members, guest speakers, classroom helpers, and in countless other ways.

Therefore, Santa Fe ISD Board of Trustees proclaim the week of April 18 – 22, 2022 as Public School Volunteer Week.
