May 2015

Lead
Tomorrow!

Can you believe it is already May!? This school year has gone by so fast and we have watched our students grow academically, socially and emotionally. Teacher and Nurse Appreciation Week is May 4th- 8th. We appreciate our staff and their dedication to our kids. Our students have worked very hard on their STAAR assessments. We are very proud of their effort and for taking their state assessments seriously. We have many things planned for our students during this last month of their school year. It has been a great year! Your support has been key to making this year a success! We look forward to having many of you back next year and wish our future Junior High students the best! We will miss them and know they will make us proud! © Destini Martin, Principal
